CLASS HISTORY

To the prophet, coming events cast their shadow before - not so the historian, to the person who writes of the happenings and events in the life of the class of 1958, the age must turn backward, and the mind must remember. As we are soon to depart from F.H.S. as graduates of 1958, let us for a few minutes glance back to the happy years we have spent and see that the history that we shall leave behind will not cause regret to a single member of 1958.

That August day of 1954 on which 42 members of the class of 1958 met has not faded from our memory. How proud we were to be Freshmen in a High School. We were certain that we would be the most brilliant students in school. Mr. Carlton Langston was our homeroom teacher. We began our year at Ramseur High School and later moved to the Baptist Church Educational Building. Our Freshman year was filled with many exciting and funny incidents like the last day when Mrs. Earlene Ward kept 13 boys after school.

One year later, we became Sophomores! Mrs. Edith Morgan was our beloved homeroom teacher. We were also happy to move into a section of our new building. During that year we suffered a terrible loss - the burning of our gymnasium which handicapped our ball teams.

In August of 1956, we returned for our Junior year. We were privileged to have Mrs. Irene Frazier as our sponsor. A. T. Beane Jr. was elected President, Nancy Vuncannon, Vice-president, Adrian Pugh, Secretary, and Harvey Ferree, Treasurer. We added many memories that year. We had a Christmas Party in the school cafeteria. After our class rings arrived, we were proud to show them to the underclassmen.

Four members of our class were elected Marshalls, Verna Hall, Nancy Vuncannon, Elaine Hopkins, and Martha Wright. The Junior-Senior Banquet was the highlight of that year with the theme "Southern Plantation". Our banquet, under the direction of Mrs. Frazier, was so successful that it was worth all the work we put into it. Then came May, when we presented Daisy Arches to the departing Seniors and sang the "Farewell Song" on graduation night, May 22, 1957.

Back again in the Fall of 1957 there were only 22 students in our class and Mrs. Janie Middleton was our homeroom teacher. With Adrian Pugh as our President; and Nancy Vuncannon, Vice-president; Jane York, Secretary; and John Higgins, Treasurer; we proceeded toward graduation. Our grade-parents entertained the class with a wonderful Christmas supper we shall never forget. The annual staff and members of the class worked hard with the Editor of The Cardinal, Nancy Vuncannon, on a successful annual for 1958.

The major part of our high school days is now history. We have learned much since that August morning four years ago, and much we have left unlearned. With grateful hearts we have watched our school rise again. Now we shall be bound forever by ties of class friendship and loyalty to our school.

So here's to you, dear classmates, the best wishes to each of you through the coming years, . . . may each of you go forward to the highest goal and always keep the memory of the Class of 1958.

Martha Wright, Historian

REMEMBERING

Just sitting here remembering those happy school days past
And wishing they could continue, but good things never last.
Remembering all those friends and the happy times we've had Thinking of our leaving soon, it makes us feel so sad.

Our minds recall-yet wonder too-what the future will call us to do.
Will we attain to the standards we've set, and come nearer life's goal without a regret?
Have our teachers done their duty so well, that in whatever town or country we dwell,
An example before men and women we'll be, unashamed for any
to see?

But wherever we go, whatever we do, we owe our thanks, Alma Mater, to you
For molding our lives and helping us start, as on the road of life we're about to depart.
As onward through life we surely must go, and to all and sundry we surely must show
A path so bright O class of '58, that our reunion would be at the heavenly gate.
